

Personal Specification

Essential

- Fully qualified to a high level in marine electrical work (certificates may be required)
- Recent experience of working as a marine electrician (minimum of three years practical)
- Experience in fault finding, repairs, refits and general service work
- Some electronics and engineering experience
- Sound working knowledge of most brands of marine engines, in particular Vetus, Cummins, Volvo, Yanmar, Beta and Bukh. Electrical systems and fault repairing.
- Able to work on own and use own initiative as well as part of a team
- Comfortable in working in confined spaces on boats.
- Good sense of humour
- Full, clean driving licence

Desirable

- Boat handling experience
- Knowledge of outboard engines
- Plant experience (driving large vehicles including vans and tractors)